ABOUT SADHU VASWANI INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES FOR GIRLS

SVIMS has been set up by the Sadhu Vaswani Mission – a humanitarian, not for profit service organization which has made yeoman contributions in the fields of education, medical care, relief-rehabilitation and social welfare. SVIMS is a product of the MIRA Movement in Education founded by philosopher-saint, Sadhu T.L. Vaswani in 1933. We are a group of 16 affiliate institutions across India and offer value education as a core ingredient in their curriculum.

Born out of the vision of a thinker saint, the MIRA Movement aims to empower women through the right type of education, for Sadhu Vaswani believed deeply in the woman- power and woman-spirit.

As part of the deep-rooted MIRA Legacy SVIMS, although a young entity looks at a different horizon in the provision and process of management education as it seeks to script winners, who ethically navigate through academics and life.

In a short span of time, SVIMS has managed to benchmark itself as a unique B-school with its distinct identity and work culture: an identity based on its core values of Respect, Reliability, Resourcefulness and Reverence for all life; a work culture that emphasizes discipline, dedication and commitment to strive for excellence. At SVIMS, we provide a good ambience and cutting edge hardware, software and human ware to our students so they are undilutedly focused on their curriculum and projects while preparing for their rendezvous with industry.
