PhD Coursework was conducted at SVIMS from 10th to 20th October 2022. The participants were PhD Scholars and PhD aspirants from Research Centres and Institutes in Pune.

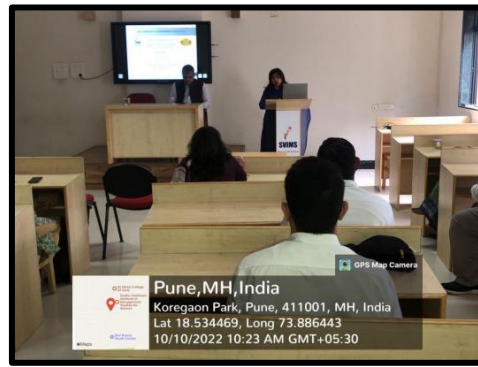

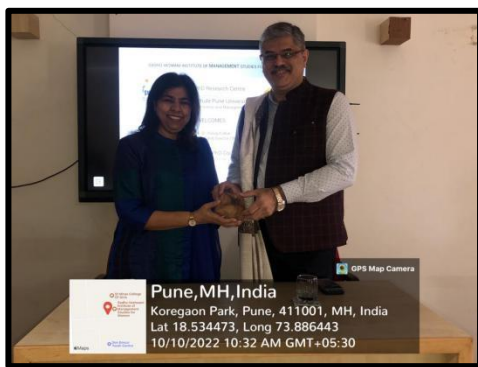

The PhD Coursework was inaugurated by Dr. B.H. Nanwani, Director SVIMS and Dr. Parag Kalkar, Hon. Dean, Faculty of Management and Commerce and Director SBS. Dr. Nanwani and Dr. Kalkar set the platform with their inputs and expectations from the research scholars. More than 25 experts from TISS, SPPU, MMK College and IDOL College, Mumbai, and various B-Schools in and around Pune City were invited to enlighten the participants, for the next 10 days, on various topics on Research Methodology.

The sessions started with theoretical explanations such as introduction to Research Paradigms. Following the theoretical basics, the participants could learn more on objectives, hypothesis formulation and hypothesis testing. Sampling Methods and Statistical techniques were dealt by the experts by taking live examples and data, so that the participants could get a hands-on-experience on deciding the appropriate sample and sampling techniques as well as the statistical method and tools.

The participants were exposed to developing questionnaire using ProQuest, which could be useful in their respective research. The research scholars learned about plagiarism, research ethics, do's and don't's, so that their research documents are free from plagiarized content.

Finally, the experts demonstrated how to find authentic journals and gave them more inputs on writing and publication of research papers and thesis.

The feedback given by the candidates on the valedictory session showed that they were very happy with all the sessions and that they could apply the learning, during their course of research journey. One of the candidates suggested that the coursework should be conducted before the finalization of the topic of PhD. The coursework was concluded with the Vote of Thanks during the Valedictory Function.

Felicitation of Dr. Parag Kalker, Hon. Dean, Faculty of Management and Commerce, SPPU

Navdhara Fest

Navdhara – is a combination of two Sanskrit words- nav meaning new and dhaara meaning flow or stream. SVIMS has always encouraged and endeavored to develop an entrepreneurial mindset amongst its students and employees, for developing real-world skills that will help students to explore their creativity and make an exceptional career path for themselves in a rapidly changing world.

With this thought, under the guidance of our Director, the admin faculty and students planned an Entrepreneurship Fest and invited zealous entrepreneurs, big or small, to display / present their fares at the Fest stalls. The synergy in the institute on 17th December is a memory worth a lifetime.

The preparation for the event began a month in advance. The students were divided into different teams:

- Core Coordinators
- Finance Team
- Marketing Team
- Creatives Team

These teams were supervised by the faculty members under the guidance of the Director. Each student reached out to their societies, previous colleges, friends to invite people for the Fest. On 17th December, SVIMS was vibrant in a plethora of colours.

We were privileged to have the following dignitaries as our Guests for inaugural ceremony:

Dr. G H Gidwani, Director, Mira Education Society

Mr. Arvind Budhani, Director, Guru Krupa Budhani Bros Waferwaala

Mr. Sahil Bhosale, Agricultural Entrepreneur and President, Satyamev Jayate (NGO)

The event began with the inauguration of the Fest at the hands of our esteemed guests. Dr Gidwani, at the time of cutting the ribbon, gave a valuable lesson. She said that rather than cutting the ribbon let's make the ends join and complete the circle of gratitude, success and humility.

This was followed by lamp lighting and paying respects to our revered founders Sadhu TL Vaswani and Dada JP Vaswani.

Dr B. H. Nanwani, Director SVIMS, in her Director's address elaborated on the meaning of Navdhaara. She emphasized on the importance of developing entrepreneurial mindset and shared about the endeavours of SVIMS in this direction. She congratulated the SVIMS team of faculty, admin and the students for the first Entrepreneurship Fest at SVIMS. Ma'am's words motivated everyone. She is our beacon and is deeply respected by all. She herself is an intrapreneur where SVIMS and St. Mira's college is concerned.

We had entrepreneurs from every walk of life:

- A software engineer with a juice machine, testing the markets and intending to make a sustainable machine
- Shantai Foundation: giving an opportunity to the residents of the vasti to present their savouries and handicrafts
- Two daughters helping their father sustain the family business of about 45 years into stone sculpting and pottery making
- Two friends who envisage to bring the sarees back as couture.
- Our own students who put up food stalls and showed their entrepreneurial spirit in action.
- Agricultural entrepreneurs
- There were 45 stalls and 250 people visited the Fest.

Music, good food, creativity corners, discussion groups and connecting with the small scale to medium scale innovative people made the day a successful one for the attendees as well as the participants. 53 Students from SVIMS participated in Planning, organizing and execution of the event.

NATIONAL STARTUP DAY

Mr. Shashikant Kumbhar, Sr. Project Officer, MCED, began the session with gauging the entrepreneurial know-how of the students who were attending the session. He was impressed to know that some of them were from a background of family business, some were influencers, and some had also worked as freelancers. However, when it came to the question of becoming a dedicated entrepreneur, there were not many enthusiasts.

He then spoke about the need for developing an entrepreneurial mindset. Women entrepreneurs today are not just a byproduct but are the demand of global business market. Mr. Kumbhar touched upon the need to be driven, to be self-motivated to learn something new and while on that journey, increase the risk appetite. He urged the students to explore their own talents as each one of them then shall find an entrepreneurial opportunity in self-exploration. 50 Students attended the program on national Start-up Day on 16th January 2023.

WORLD IP DAY

World IP Day 2023 focused on the theme "Women and IP: Accelerating Innovation and Creativity". The purpose of this theme was to highlight the role of women in driving innovation and creativity and the importance of ensuring that women's contributions are recognized and protected through intellectual property rights. Various events were held globally to celebrate this theme, with organizations and institutions promoting the role of women in the IP field. The World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) organized a virtual event that brought together women innovators, IP experts, and policymakers to discuss the challenges faced by women in the field and the opportunities for empowering women in the IP system.

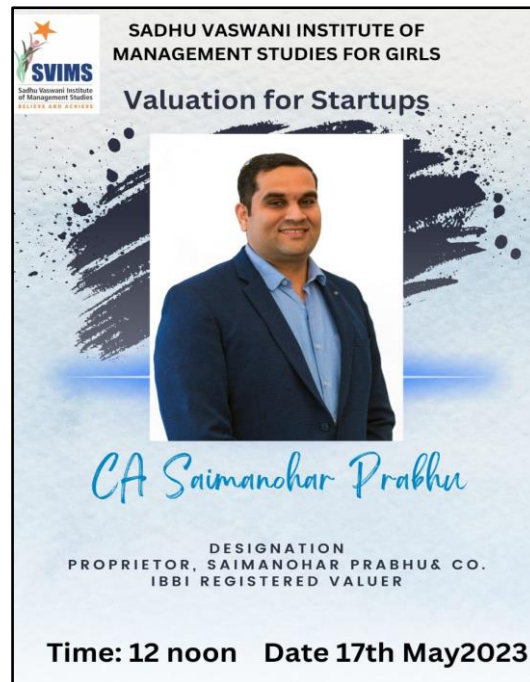

The celebration of World IP Day 2023 also provided an opportunity to highlight the gender gap that exists in the IP system. Despite the significant contributions of women to innovation and creativity, they remain underrepresented in the IP system, both as creators and beneficiaries of intellectual property rights.

VALUATION OF STARTUPS

CA Saimanohar Prabhu, Proprietor, Saimanohar Prabhu & Co, enlightened the students of MBA II about the valuation of startups and the KPI thereof.

Key points emphasised upon:

- Free cash flow is Essential to compute to arrive at the valuation of an enterprise. This helps to ensure that the valuation is not inflated by taking the cash flows. The working capital requirement reduces the free cash flow.
- Example of startup manufacturing Railway track sensors was given. Robots are used to man the tracks. This process is completely automated. While doing valuation, factor considered was that if similar products are available, then business value comes down. Besides that, whether the startup is planning for presence in city, state or pan-India, would also impact the valuation.
- The KPIs that he talked about were ROI, WACC, Operating Profit, market capitalization amongst others.
- He also lay emphasised that synergy benefits need to be considered while doing valuation as they intangibles play a big role in the valuation.
- To a question as to why companies go for valuation, he specified the situations – enhancement in equity, to avail debt, to consider the possibility of mergers and acquisitions.
