13th August 2018

Ahead of our Janmashtami celebrations, we organized a competition on 'Decoration of small Earthen pots.' We had planned to distribute these Earthen pots amongst the kids of our Class IV employees whom we have invited for celebrating Janmashtami with us. The challenge of this competition was to decorate the pot in a manner which allows us to put in goodies inside it. This competition gave us an opportunity to enjoy the festival ahead of the festival.

Ms. Shivali Wadekar was declared as the winner of the competition.

Report- Janmashtami Celebration

31 August 2018

This colourful and blissful celebration started with welcoming the children of our staff members dressed up like Kanhas and Gopis and like our tradition goes, with a Pooja of all of them and distribution of small matkis filled with Butter, Chocolates and Sweets. This evening then proceeded with a soulful Bharatnatyam performance by Kamya Singh, daughter of our HOD, Dr Prabha Singh, a solo Garba performance by our student-Neha Advani, 3 group dance performances by MBA Part I and MBA part II students and a hilarious yet smartly put-up dance performance by our student- Kajal Borhade.

In midst of all the high-energy dance performances, the main attraction of this celebration was the breaking of Dahi Handi by our little ones, which was followed by a Jalebi eating competition between the kids and the students. We ended the programme by distributing eateries to all our students, a feast for all the small children and having a small get together.

Report-Musical Celebration of International Women's Day

March 2019

This year we decided to celebrate International Women's Day with a musical twist. LiveJam Foundation was invited to our institute to engage our students and faculty members through a live musical programme and a short motivational talk by their facilitator Ms. Rachel. This programme was organized to address the issues that stem from crisis of identity and sexual abuse, however, in a subtle manner. Their message of 'Live Life Loud' was clear and melodious throughout this celebration. Through this interesting set-up, they helped our students to live with higher meaning of purpose and self-love.

Report- Global Mentoring Walk

10 March 2019

We organized a mentoring session for our students in partnership with Vital Voices. This session named 'Global Mentoring Walk' was our way of extending our International Women's Day celebration. In this session, below mentioned self-created iconic women leaders who have with courage proved their mettle in the corporate world, were invited to guide and provide a correct outlook to the dreams relating to professional career of our students. The session started with an introduction to Vital Voices and the profile of mentors by Ms. Sweta Mohapatra, Flagbearer of Vital Voices in Pune. Ms. Vinita Gera then addressed the students with her keynote speech on 'Attracting, retaining and growing women talent in Corporates.' Then, each of the mentors took over a group of students for a focused mentorship session. This session helped a lot of our students to broaden their outlook and clarify their doubts. The session ended with a question-answer round and felicitation of each mentor.
