Report - International Yoga Day 2021

8 June to 21 June 2021

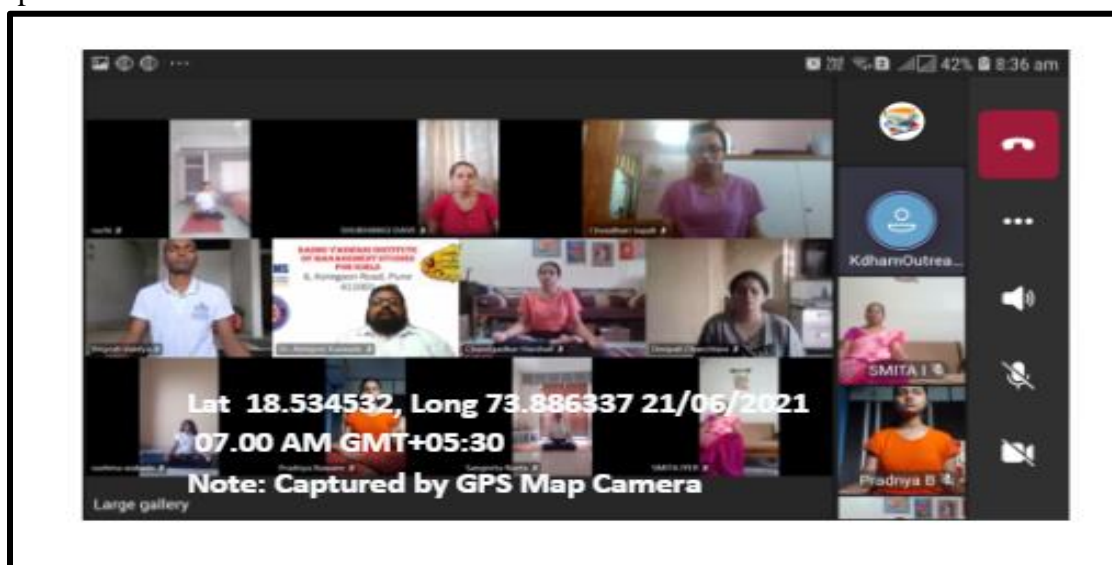

Since its inception in the year 2015, June 21st is celebrated as The International Day of Yoga all over the world.

International Yoga Day was celebrated by the students, staff, and teachers at Sadhu Vaswani Institute of Management Studies for Girls, Pune with The Kaivalyadhama Health and Yoga Research Center, Lonawala. Ms Anjali Deshmukh and team led students into warm up exercises, sitting and standing asanas, along with explanation of importance of each posture, and recitation of shlokas. The celebration concluded with a message by Dr B. H. Nanwani, Director urging students to do yoga regularly to remain fit and improve concentration.

We also practiced yoga and breathing exercises from 8th June 2021 to 21st June 2021 under the guidance of Ms Isha Barut, MBA part 1 student as per the circular from Ministry of Ayush, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Ayurveda, Yoga & Naturopathy and Unani, AICTE, Savitribai Phule Pune University and NSS Unit.

We shared Revered Dada J. P. Vaswani's Video on 'A Treasure trove of Insight on Yoga' on International Yoga Day.

Regular practice of yoga will surely help our students achieve a better physical, mental, and spiritual life.

Report- Art of Living – Immunity Boosting Programme

24 to 26 June 2021

[Participants: Students:127; Teaching faculty:6; non-teaching staff:7]

As per Indian custom and culture, it is not just medicines that help in cure of ailments and disease; it is also the management of the mind and breath management that help in the healing. The Art of Living programme was meant to boost immunity, improve lung capacity, mental health and reduce stress and anxiety through meditation, breathing and yoga for non-Covid, Covid positive with mild or moderate symptoms and post Covid persons.

Art of Living Pune Chapter's team of Trainers – Ms Rajashree Modak, Mr Parag Kulkarni, Mr Rohit Patil trained our students and staff on Yoga, meditation and breathing techniques as effective tools to fight against the physical and mental distress brought by the pandemic. These techniques are claimed to boost immunity and aid in the mental and emotional recovery of Covid-19 patients and others. The relaxation brought by these techniques also aids the healing process.

Report - Bal Gangadhar Tilak Punyatithi and Anna Bhau Sathe 100th Jayanti

2 August 2021

On 2nd August 2021, the institute observed Bal Gangadhar Tilak Punyatithi during the online sanctuary. A speech was delivered by Ms. Parishweta Gulhane covering the major milestones of Shri Bal Gangadhar Tilak's life. She shared his contributions towards nation building. A video was screened to pay homage to the fearless freedom fighter. This event strengthened the feeling of patriotism in the minds of participants, students, and faculty members alike.

We also observed the 100th Jayanti of Lokshahir Anna Bhau Sathe. A gist of his most acclaimed literary work Fakira was given by Ms. Parishweta Gulhane. She emphasized on the struggles of Fakira, the protagonist, for rights of people against the British Raj. His work was awarded by the State government of Maharashtra in 1961. A video was screened to pay homage to the Artist and Social Activist. This event strengthened the belongingness towards the wealth of regional literature in the minds of participants, students, and faculty members alike.

Report - 75th Independence Day Celebration

On 75th Independence Day – 15th Aug 2021 we invited a special guest, Mr. D V Hivrale, WCD to speak on true Freedom and Independence. The speaker highlighted the need for and importance of the youth in contributing towards the welfare of our society to make India truly free and independent. He narrated a story to emphasise that we can contribute to society's welfare even if we cannot fight as soldiers. He also told the participants a short story of Gandhiji and his contribution to India's freedom. He stressed on the need to engineer special programs to help women and children. The emphasis should be on making them independent and self-reliant through skill building and empowerment rather than in giving charity and making them dependent.

After the talk, Ms. Rucha Lathi a student from MBA, part 1 gave a small speech on building the spirit of nationalism. Ms. Anuja Jagdale and Ms. Jyotika Makhija sang patriotic songs.

Report - Raksha Bandhan Celebrations

On 20th August 2021

We organised Rakhi Celebrations with the poor and disabled people and with the social workers.

Students made 275 Rakhis. Some students submitted it in the college and the students who were not in Pune tied the rakhis in their nearby areas.

They went to various places and tied rakhis to the social workers such as policemen, watchmen, temple care personnel and with the poor and disabled people. Celebrating the festival of Raksha bandhan with these people was a great feeling of happiness and joy. The places where the activity was conducted were Prayagraj, Sarwaha, Southern Command, Yerwada Jail and Sankat Mochan temple in Madhya Pradesh.

Report - Tu hi Durga, Tu hi Krishna: Janmashtami Celebration

30 August 2021

This year, we decided to celebrate Janmashtami around the theme of ‘Tu hi Durga, Tu hi Krishna.’ The idea and understanding behind this theme were that in today’s world, a woman must be her own protector, her own Krishna. We all know and have heard at various points of time that “God helps those who help themselves” and this was exactly what we wanted to convey through our virtual celebration of Janmashtami.

Our students namely, Ms Deepali Chanchlani and Ms Mrunmayee Thorat had recorded beautiful and soulful renditions in the form of a Bhajan and a classical dance performance. Both were shown to all the participants in this celebration. Besides these, our other students Ms Falak Baig, Ms Shraddha Shinde, Ms Vanessa along with Ms Deepali shot 2 very short videos around this year’s theme to demonstrate today’s women in her Krishna-roop. These too, were shown to the audience. We ended the celebration with a speech cum story narration by Dr Sujata Vaidya. She drew a meaningful analogy between Krishna-energy and a woman. It was her narration that conveyed this year’s theme in a simple and a beautiful manner.

Report - Ganpati Festival

11 September 2021

This year Ganpati Festival was celebrated with the students and their families at their homes as SVIMS opted for virtual celebrations. Teams Microsoft link was floated by the students inviting all the others to join in the celebrations. Due to the somber environment (Covid 19), the festivities were not held at a grand scale, as is the tradition of SVIMS. But the event was conducted with full devotion.

The festival was celebrated with the objectives of promoting eco-friendly practices during Ganapati pooja celebrations; to promote awareness and understanding about the spiritual and cultural ideals related to the festival and to celebrate the diversity of the rich Indian culture and heritage

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The program was started with a prayer, as is the tradition of SVIMS.

A Video on Peace by our Rev. Dada J P Vaswani was played for the attendees. Following this, a video message by UN Secretary General on International Day of Peace was played. These two videos set the tone for the program further.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. SHAMA HUSSAIN - Founder Director & CEO of International Institute of Influencers, Oman

The key points of the session were:

- To bring out transformation you need to bounce back from any situation.
- If there is no transformation, there is no evolution.
- In today's world building resilience is of key importance.
- Examples of Bajaj and HMT watch to explain how they reached the stage of extinction and what could have been done to sustain business and keep the graph of success accelerated.
- Formula of  $E + R = O$  where, E means the events that occur, R is the response we give, and the result O is the outcome.
- Events will occur and we can't control them, but a pessimist response is important.
- Change needs to be brought from within no one else can do it for you.
- Spreading wings is important to understand how far you can fly and extend your limits.

Panel Discussion

Ms. Mansi Dholakia, Founder and Chairperson for GMH Foundation, India

- Being a Women Resilience is something that is being tested every day.
- She discussed the challenges women face by giving her personal experiences.
- She herself was in a state of anxiety and depression for 10 years, but her passion and dream made her work towards success.
- Dreams are endless and that is the reason you need to build resilience.
- Maintaining and controlling emotions as a woman is an ultimate test of resilience since women are more sensitive and liable of emotions and this comes as a hurdle in the path of success.
- Difficulties, obstacles and personal issues are a part and parcel of life, we need to understand how to deal with them because as a woman understanding and managing emotions is what we can do.
- SDGs can be achieved when a woman is empowered, finding gaps in the process and working on them is essential.

Ms. Shubhra Tiwari, Commandant, 6th India Reserve Battalion, India

- Was a policy and planning officer for peacekeeping operations in Italy.
- Developed resilience by day-to-day policing activities.
- Resilience is a combination of 2 contradictory qualities, Resistance and Flexibility.
- Police work is physically and mentally demanding. Always more exposed to volatility and complexity.
- They were never trained to handle situations like pandemic and suddenly people were put on duty at places away from home and couldn't get leaves easily.
- Resilient people have positive outlook to every situation.
- They have solid goals and maintain healthy relationships and never bow to peer pressure.
- Never think of yourself as a victim. You can't control what others think about you but change the way you think about yourself, change the way how you think about negative situations and bad events.
- Choose your response because your reaction is important.
- Never lose your perspective. Nothing is perfect your attitude to it is an important thing.
- Never be judgmental always have the flexibility to manage crisis in your life

Ms. Amrita Dhillon, Co-Founder and Chief Editor of The Kootneeti, Singapore

- Resilience is a very wide topic and is there in everyone's life.
- Women need to show more resilience.
- Today that we talk about feminism, equality and gender issues is also because of the resilience we and our mothers and grandmothers did during their time.
- She shared her experiences when she entered the field of research in geopolitics how resilient she was for doing it despite all the oppositions she got.
- Your career choices should be your decisions and not someone else's.

- Your resilience is important, what people say and who support you is just something that give you an edge.
- She shared her experience of resiliency during her pregnancy when she came back to India.
- Don't think of what resilience is, take your small steps with confidence and plan your journey towards success.

The platform was then open to discussions with the speaker and moderated by Dr. Smita Iyer, bringing in more value and life to the theme. It is more important to understand resilience first and then apply it to the life and living, as every living being has shown resilience at their own levels.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On 26th October 2021, the Vigilance Awareness Week commenced with the Integrity Pledge being taken by the Director, Faculty and Staff together as an Organization. The students took the pledge online on <https://pledge.cvc.nic.in/> and proudly shared their certificates.

SVIMS also invited the faculty and students of Trinity Institute of Management and Research, Pune, under the aegis of their MOU, to participate in the event.

The students were invited to participate in E-Poster and Chart Competition in line with the theme of the program on 27th October 2021.

On 28th October 2021, the residents of Gadge Maharaj Vasti were invited to participate in Rangoli Making. They were apprised about the importance of the week and the purpose of the activity undertaken by the Ministry of Education. We asked them to make rangoli with their family members to observe the theme of the event and share the pictures with us.

Our Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi is a visionary with all his efforts towards making India a better country in all aspects. His policies are aimed at eradication of evils of society at their root, such as corruption. As a mark of respect, his address to the nation on anti-corruption was played for faculty, students, and staff on 29th October 2021.

On 30th October 2021 the students were invited to participate in Poetry Competition in accordance with the theme "Independent India@75: Self Reliance with Integrity". The students mostly wrote about women empowerment and its much-required place in our socio-political scenario.

On 31st October, a quiz link was shared with the students of SVIMS, Sadhu Vaswani Nursing College and Trinity Institute of Management and Research, Pune. The online quiz had questions related to the theme and India's 75 years of Independence.

Keeping in line with the theme of the program, the faculty and students came together and presented an Online Nautanki – a short video on corruption during college admissions - which was played for the students and shared on Facebook.

CONCLUSION

With the support and guidance of Dr. BH Nanwani (Director, SVIMS) and Dr. Abhijeet Kaiwade (HOD), the Vigilance Awareness Week was completed successfully. The students were much inspired and participated in the events whole heartedly.

Report - Guru Nanak Jayanti

Guru Nanak Devji is the first of the ten Sikh gurus and the founder of Sikhism. His birth anniversary is observed as 'Gurpurab', or Guru Nanak Jayanti across the globe. Guru Nanak travelled widely to spread the message of oneness and compassion. This year, the 552nd birth anniversary of Guru Nanakji was celebrated on 19th November 2021 with the following objectives:

1. To celebrate and pay obeisance to Guru Nanak Devji.
2. To understand the significance of selfless service to humanity, prosperity, and social justice for all, irrespective of the differences they have
3. To obey, respect and follow the path shown by a guru in each life to attain spiritual and holistic understanding of life.

A special sanctuary was organised, and we sang the hymn 'Ek Onkar' followed by Ms. Bindiya Rangwani's talk where she spoke of Guru Nanak's message of 'One God' and His creation. Dr. B H Nanwani, Director, shared her insights to the importance of the day, the beliefs and teaching of the saints and their relevance in today's times. A video on the story of Guru Nanakji and the Emperor of Baghdad was played. The story reflects Guru's teachings that are pertinent to our lives.

Report - World Disability Day

03-12-2021

Our institution's Students' Council decided to observe World Disability Day differently this year. They organized a Games Championship that consisted of 03 games. This championship was structured as a series, leading to a cumulative score accumulated in every game. The 03 games were:

1. Three-legged Race
2. The Whisper Challenge
3. Dumb Charades

Every game in the form of a twist thus involved restriction on organ/limbs usage. 22 students and faculty members participated in this Games Championship. While we declared winners individually for each game, Ms. Mrunali Patil won the Games Championship and Ms. Veena Sharma was the Runner-up. While the students had fun playing all these games whether in group/pair, in the conclusion, the members of the Students' Council posed a question of, "How would you feel if you faced this kind of a restriction/challenge every day?" All the students expressed sadness as an answer to this question. This is where, the Students' Council members drove home the point of displaying humility towards those who are disabled/especially abled.

We ended the program with a Students' Council member, Ms. Nikita Wankhede teaching all the students the alphabet in sign language. It was indeed beautiful to learn a new language and to converse with special people in this world.

Savitribai Phule Jayanti

3 January 2022

SVIMS faculty, staff and students paid their obeisance to Savitribai Phule by lighting a lamp and reciting Saraswati Vandana. Director, Dr. B H Nanwani inspired the gathering with her words of wisdom. She spoke about the dedication of Savitribai to the cause of women empowerment in an era when women were only supposed to do household chores. The Director emphasized that if a lady is educated, the society is empowered. The development of the society depends upon how well the women are nurtured and developed in that society

Dr. Nanwani also mentioned about the role of Jyotirao Phule, Savitribai's husband, who supported her endeavours and stood by her. Thus, the interdependence and trust of man and woman on each other sustains the societal balances and leads to growth of the society.

An inspirational short video on the life of Savitribai Phule: The Revolutionary Feminist Icon (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eBy8YUNHjyw>) was shown to the attendees.

Parishweta Gulhane, MBA II, Batch 2020-2022, shared her thoughts about the Iron Lady and recited a poem in praise of Savitribai Phule.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Sonali Joshi

Report – Hindi Day Celebration

- SVIMS observed and celebrated world Hindi Day on 10th January 2022 with reverence and enthusiasm for our nation and our national language. With the guidance of our Director, D. B H Nanwani, the program schedule was prepared and finalized.
- The program began with a welcome speech by Ms. Sonali Joshi wherein she welcomed all the attendees and gave a brief introduction on the importance of the day that is celebrated nationally and internationally.
- Dr. Divya Lakhani conducted the Speech competition with the students. It was heartening to see the students' enthusiasm and response as they actively participated in the Speech Competition. The students were given two topics a day prior so that they could prepare their speech. The two topics given were:
  - Dr. Lakhani then conducted a game “What’s a good word” wherein the student volunteer was given a word that had to describe in actions to the other attendees. The faculty too participated in this game. The coordination on whatsapp as well as MS teams made all of us aware of the changing scenarios of participative teaching- learning.
- The next game played was translation of English words into Hindi. All the students participated and came up with mostly correct words or synonyms for the same word.
- Ms. Bindiya Rangwani then conducted a Hindi Dictation for the students. She enunciated each word and sentence for the students to understand the dictation better. The students were to write down and send a photo of the written paper. The judgement for the best written work was to be made because of good handwriting and no/minimal spelling mistakes.
- Ms. Sonali Joshi then played a song / video in praise of our nation and our national language – Hindi <https://youtu.be/w68CUtZMj-8>. The song and its wordings reverberated through all the attendees, leaving everyone basking in the feelings of patriotism and reverence for our nation.
- Dr. Abhijeet Kaiwade was invited to give a Vote of Thanks. The program was recorded on MS teams.

CONCEPT OF THE PROGRAM

National Youth Day, also known as Yuva Diwas, marks the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, one of the most popular philosophers and thinkers of India.

OBJECTIVES

To help students imbibe the Vivekananda's philosophy and ideals.

PROGRAM DETAILS

1	Speech – Dr Divya Lakhani
2	Honourable PM Shri Narendra Modi's inaugural speech on the occasion of National Youth Day
3	Conclusion with famous quotes of Swami Vivekananda

National Youth Day is celebrated on January 12 to mark the birth anniversary of the country's most distinguished youth leader Swami Vivekananda, who always motivated the youth of the country and spoke about the right use of the youth in the development of the country.

The program commenced with the introductory speech by Dr. Divya Lakhani to mark the occasion. She emphasized on the life and philosophy advocated by Swami Vivekananda. This was followed by streaming the inaugural address of Honourable PM Shri Narendra Modi's inaugural speech on the occasion of National Youth Day at Puducherry.

The program concluded with the following quotes of Swami Vivekananda:

"We are what our thoughts have made us; so, take care about what you think. Words are secondary. Thoughts live; they travel far".

"All differences in this world are of degree, and not of kind because oneness is the secret of everything."

Report - Makar Sankranti Celebration (Mash-Up Competition)

13 January 2022

The objectives of this year's Makarsankranti celebration were:

2. To increase the awareness about Makarsankranti celebration across the country; how it is celebrated in different ways with different names
3. To lift the spirits of all who were a part of this celebration.

A crossword puzzle was put up in the form of a competition. This crossword was based on the different rituals followed to celebrate Makarsankranti across India. Another competition was on mash-up of songs which had words like that of patang or kite. Language in which these songs were to be sung was not put up as a barrier. A total of 38 students and 14 teams participated in both the competitions.

The second segment of this programme was an interview with Ms. Parishweta Gulhane and Ms. Mansi Asnani who were recently detected Covid+. The aim of putting up this segment was for these students to share with all of us of how they managed to stay active and lively even in testing times of Covid stress around. This segment lifted our spirits like a kite fly high in the sky.

Report - Quiz – Apna Desh Apne Hathiyar

Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav

19 January 2022

The Ministry of Defence in coordination with MyGov.in organised an online quiz [5 to 20 January 2022] to commemorate the freedom fighters and to celebrate the Republic Day. The theme of the quiz was “Atmanirbhar Bharat in Defence Production and Apna Desh Apne Hathiyar”. The students, faculty, and staff of SVIMS participated in the Quiz on 19th January 2022. The event was a huge success with more than 80 participants. So far, 51 students have received certificate of participation.

Report - National Tourism Day: Colours of India

25 January 2022

To celebrate the diversity that our nation offers, we organised two competitions on National Tourism Day. One was where the students were asked to dress up in a traditional attire of any culture they choose to and say a line in the language of that culture. While the other competition required the participants to upload a travel VLOG. A total of 28 students participated in the competitions. Ms. Mitali Ukey from MBA Part I and Ms. Anuja Jagdale from MBA Part II won the first competition while, Ms Rutuja Parkhi and Ms. Mitali Ukey from MBA Part I and Ms Nikita Wankhede, Ms. Ami Adodariya from MBA Part II won the second competition on creation of VLOG.

This celebration led to appreciation of diverse cultures that we have and experience all its colours.

Report - 73rd Republic Day Celebration

SVIMS celebrated the 73rd Republic Day on 26th January 2022. The program commenced with flag hoisting by Dr B H Nanwani, Director, SVIMS. This was followed by all the members offering their respect to the Indian Constitution by reciting the Preamble to the Constitution, followed by the National Anthem.

Ms. Shraddha Shinde, President, Student Council, SVIMS welcomed the audience. She spoke about the role of youth in the national building process. She exhorted everyone to be ready to face the challenges that life has to offer and come out stronger than before.

She then played a video to enlighten the audience on National War Memorial. The memorial was built to commemorate all the soldiers who have laid down their lives in the various battles, wars, operations, and conflicts of Independent India. SVIMS salutes all the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for the motherland.

She then went on to highlighting the contribution of MARATHA LIGHT INFANTRY, one of the oldest Regiments of the Indian Army, that is highly acclaimed for swift manoeuvre with indomitable courage and bravery. A video showcasing their valour was played to enlighten the audience about their contribution to the nation.

This was followed by the address of our Director, Dr B H Nanwani. Dr. Nanwani laid stress on 3D's – Discipline, Devotion and Duty, which need to be adopted as sacred sutras in our lives. This will result in us becoming self-confident and independent in the true sense.

A Republic Day would be incomplete without the cultural performances.

Ms. Sanyukta Borse, Librarian, gave a melodious performance that consisted of mashup of patriotic songs. Keeping up the festive fervour, Ms. Isha Khandekar, Ms. Shreya Vibhute, Ms. Namrata Nagpal and Ms. Salomi Gore, students from MBA I gave a mesmerizing performance wherein they danced to the popular number – 'Desh Rangeela' from the movie 'Fanaa'.

The program concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr. Abhijeet Kaiwade, HOD & NSS Coordinator.

Report - Heritage Tour of Maharashtra and Odisha

The program commenced with the Welcome Address by Ms. Rosy Soren, Asst Prof, DAMITS.

The program commenced with an Odissi Dance performed by Ms. Sahista S. A fabulous performance from Sahista enthralled the audience. This was followed by a video on Odisha's Heritage. This showcased the prominent places like –

This was followed by a speech by Ms. Ankita Sahoo, who explained the significance of Rath Yatra.

Ms. Nibedita Meher explained the historical significance of Hirakud Dam.

After these wonderful performances by DAMITS students, SVIMS students took the centre stage. The program was divided into six segments to showcase the culture and heritage of Maharashtra–

1. Ganesh Chaturthi
2. Art
3. Ethnic fashion
4. Palkhi – Waarkaris
5. Local Cuisine
6. Tourist attraction

The segment commenced with the Ganesh Vandana. People from all walks of life install Ganesh idols at their homes during the 10-day Ganesh Chaturthi festival. The students and faculty of SVIMS, who celebrated the festival by installing Ganesh idols at their homes shared the photographs from their personal album that was brought forward in the form of a video.

The Art segment had Ms. Asawari Nawale displaying her talent in drawing. She first showed a photograph of door that had warli painting drawn on the door frame. She very beautifully drew an exact replica of it. No one was able to find which is the photograph or which one is the painting....

Then we had Ms. Shreya Vibhute. Who showed the Mehendi art. What was unique about it? One can always say that women all over India apply heena on their hands during various festivals. What sets Shreya's Mehendi apart from others was that she depicted the Gateway of India. A beautiful handiwork indeed!!

The next segment - Ethnic fashion, had Ms. Salomi Gore and Ms. Parishweta Gulhane, wherein they depicted the Nauvari Saree, and the way Maharashtrian women dress up.

The fourth segment depicted the Palkhi procession.

Pandharpur Wari or Wari pronounced vaaree, is an annual pilgrimage (yatra) to the town of Pandharpur, in the Indian state of Maharashtra, to honor the deity of Hindu God Vitthal. The wari involves carrying the paduka (a type of wooden slippers or footprints) of a saint (Sant in marathi) in a palkhi, most notably of Sant Dnyaneshwar and Sant Tukaram, from their respective shrines to Pandharpur. Thousands of warkaris or pilgrims join this procession on foot.

Warkari is a Marathi term which means "one who performs the Wari" or "one who venerates Vithoba". The tradition is more than 700 to 800 years old.

Every year in June, lakhs of pilgrims from Maharashtra participate in the palkhi procession. The procession embarks from the pilgrim centres of Alandi and Dehu in Pune district and the pilgrims march through the day and rest at night. The Wari culminates at the Vithoba temple, Pandharpur on the holy occasion of Ashadhi Ekdashi.

Ms. Vipashyana Sonawane and Ms. Isha Khandekar beautifully showcased this through a video, that had photographs from the personal collection of Mr. Mayur Gaidhane, an acclaimed photographer from Pune.

The fifth segment – that all people associate with a particular place is FOOD. Ms. Vipashyana Sonawane, a food blogger, discussed about the different types of cuisine available in Maharashtra. She also shared a video that showcased the popular food items – Puran poli, Pithale Bhakri, Misal pav, etc.

The last segment – had Ms. Kanizfatema Khan showing the top ten tourist attractions of Maharashtra – Mahableshwar, Lonavala, Alibaug, Panchgani, Ajanta Ellora caves, etc.

The enthusiastic participation of 100 students and faculty made this event a memorable one.
